Ways to Apply to FEMA

- By phone at 1-800-621-3362. Help is available in most languages. If you use video relay service (VRS), captioned telephone service or others, give FEMA your number for that service. Phone lines operate from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. seven days a week.
 - The deadline to apply for FEMA disaster assistance is April 1.

FEMA

- If you are planning to apply for FEMA assistance, knowing what you will be asked and what information you need to have handy can help you feel ready. Things to have handy include:
 - Each family member's Social Security number.
 - The address where you are staying and what the phone number is.
 - The amount of damage to your home. Be sure to share updates with FEMA so we can continue to review your case.

Disaster Unemployment Assistance (DUA)

- Employees or self-employed individuals in Maine who became unemployed as a direct result of the severe storm and flooding, may be eligible to receive Disaster Unemployment Assistance (DUA). Eligible survivors are encouraged to apply for disaster assistance.
- To be eligible for DUA, the individual must be determined ineligible for regular unemployment insurance benefits under any state or federal law. Claimants must first apply for state unemployment benefits by visiting Maine Department of Labor's Bureau of Unemployment Insurance self-service portal. An application must be submitted by March 4, 2024. DUA claims filed after this deadline may be ineligible.

U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA)

- SBA disaster loans are the largest source of federal disaster recovery funds for survivors. Businesses, homeowners, renters, and certain nonprofits that were affected may apply online for low-interest disaster loans using SBA's secure website at <https://disasterloanassistance.sba.gov/ela/s/>. Applicants may also call SBA's Customer Service Center at 800-659-2955 or email DisasterCustomerService@sba.gov for more information. Individuals who are deaf or hard-of-hearing may call 800-877-8339.
